Web Press Corporation Announces Management Changes

Web Press Corporation, a Kent, Washington press manufacturer, announces the appointment of Mike Collins to the position of National Sales Manager.

Collins, who resides in Flower Mound, Texas, started his career in the graphic arts industry in 1983 as a sales representative for a consumable supply manufacturer. In 1985 he went to work in Dallas for a distributor of printing supplies where he worked until 1993 when his career moved into the capital equipment area of sales. His experience in capital equipment includes stacking, trimming, material-handling and web press sales. Mr. Collins has been working as a sales executive for Web Press Corporation since February of 2007.

Additional changes include the appointment of Olivia D. Bernabe as the Controller and VP of Finance, and the promotion of David Skaggs to the position of VP of Manufacturing. Both Bernabe and Skaggs have also been approved as members of the Web Press Corporation Board of Directors. The Board has also approved Rick Guinn as Senior Vice President. Mr. Guinn will maintain his current assignment as VP of Operations in addition to his Senior VP duties.
